Instructions to Federal Agencies Preparing Administrative Wage Garnishment Forms

Purpose

This document explains how Federal agencies prepare administrative wage garnishment orders. This document does not confer any rights that a person would not otherwise have, nor does failure to follow the instructions contained in this document necessarily invalidate an administrative wage garnishment order.

Background

Wage garnishment is a process whereby an employer withholds amounts from an employee's wages and pays those amounts to the employee's creditor in satisfaction of a wage garnishment order issued by the creditor. A Federal agency collecting delinquent nontax debt may garnish the wages of a delinquent debtor without first obtaining a court order. This process, known as "administrative wage garnishment," is authorized by section 31001(o) of the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 (DCIA), Pub. L. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321-358 (Apr. 26, 1998), codified at 31 U.S.C. § 3720D. The rules and procedures governing administrative wage garnishment were published as a Final Rule in the Federal Register on May 6, 1998 (63 FR 25136) (hereafter referred to as the "Final Rule"). In accordance with the Final Rule, the Financial Management Service (FMS), a bureau of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, promulgated Standard Form 329 (SF-329) which Federal agencies are required to use to issue administrative wage garnishment (AWG) orders. See below for information on obtaining AWG forms. This document provides agencies with step-by-step instructions for preparing AWG orders using the standard form.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The administrative wage garnishment process under the DCIA is an administrative action taken by a Federal agency against a debtor's employer. Therefore, any collection of information under the AWG order is exempt from the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 (44 U.S.C. § 3501 et seq.). See 44 U.S.C. § 3518(c)(1)(B)(ii) (Act does not apply to the collection of information during the conduct of an administrative action involving an agency against specific individuals or entities).

Instructions to Federal Agencies Preparing Administrative Wage Garnishment Forms

AWG Statutory and Regulatory Requirements

Federal agencies must ensure that AWG orders are issued in accordance with the requirements of the DCIA and the Final Rule. Before issuing any AWG orders, agencies should review the requirements of 31 U.S.C. § 3720D and 31 C.F.R. § 285.11 (63 FR 25136, May 6, 1998) with their agency counsel.

1. Notice to the debtor. At least 30 days before an agency initiates garnishment proceedings, the agency must give the debtor written notice informing him or her of the nature and amount of the debt, the intention of the agency to collect the debt through deductions from pay, and an explanation of the debtor's rights regarding the proposed action.
2. Due process. The agency must provide the debtor with an opportunity to inspect and copy the agency's records related to the debt, to establish a repayment agreement, and to receive a hearing concerning the existence or amount of the debt and the terms of a repayment schedule.
3. Hearings. Agencies must prescribe regulations for the conduct of AWG hearings. A hearing must be held prior to the issuance of a AWG order if the debtor's request is timely received. For hearing requests that are not received in the specified time frame, an agency need not delay the issuance of the AWG order prior to conducting a hearing. The hearing official must issue a written decision no later than 60 days after the date on which the request for such hearing was received by the agency.

Instructions to Federal Agencies Preparing Administrative Wage Garnishment Forms

Preparing the AWG Form

Unless the agency receives information that the agency believes justifies a delay or cancellation of the AWG order, the agency issuing the AWG order is required to send, by first class mail, an AWG order to the debtor's employer (1) within 30 days after the debtor fails to make a timely request for a hearing, or, (2) if the debtor made a timely request for a hearing, within 30 days after a final decision is made by the agency to proceed with the garnishment.

The AWG form (SF-329) consists of 4 documents, copies of which are attached as Appendix A. See below for information on obtaining AWG order forms. The agency issuing the AWG order should mail all of the following 4 documents in one package to the employer after preparing the package in accordance with these instructions:

1. Letter to Employer & Important Notice to Employer (SF-329A);
2. Wage Garnishment Order (SF-329B);
3. Wage Garnishment Worksheet (SF-329C); and
4. Employer Certification (SF-329D).

Letter to Employer & Important Notice to Employer (SF-329A)

The agency is not required to insert any information on the Letter to Employer & Important Notice to Employer. This document explains the purpose of the AWG order and alerts the employer to its responsibility to comply with the directions contained in the AWG order as well as the employer's legal obligations with respect to the AWG order.

Instructions to Federal Agencies

Wage Garnishment Order (SF-329B)

The Wage Garnishment Order must be completed by the agency issuing the AWG order in accordance with the following instructions.

Box #

- 1 Date of this Order. Insert the date the agency issued the AWG order. The date the agency issued the order is the date an agency official determines that the debtor failed to make a timely request for a hearing, or if the debtor made a timely request for a hearing, the date a final decision is made by the agency to proceed with the garnishment.
- 2 Date mailed to Employer. Insert the date the agency mailed the AWG order. Agencies should take the necessary steps to ensure that the AWG order is mailed the same day as the date inserted in this box.
- 3 Creditor Agency Tracking No. Insert the number used by the agency to identify the AWG order. If the debt number is used, agencies should include an additional identifier unique to the AWG order in the event of multiple AWG orders for a debtor with more than one employer.
- 4 Employee Name. Insert the full name of the debtor and any alias names by which the debtor may be known e.g., Dave Debtor, also known as David B. Debtor.
- 5 Employee Social Security No. Insert the debtor's social security number.

Instructions to Federal Agencies Preparing Administrative Wage Garnishment Forms

Box

- 6-7 Employer and Employer Mailing Address. Insert the complete legal name and mailing address of the debtor's employer. Agencies should not abbreviate the name of the employer. For example, Donut Shop of America, Inc. should not be shortened to Donut Shop as the latter may be a different entity. To the extent practical, agencies should contact the debtor's employer to obtain the legal name and address of the debtor's employer. For corporations, agencies may verify the information with the centralized corporation records maintained by the State in which the employer is doing business. For other entities, agencies may verify the information with centralized records maintained by the county or town in which the employer is doing business.
- 8-9 Creditor Agency and Creditor Agency Mailing Address. Insert the complete name and mailing address of the agency issuing the AWG order. Agencies should be identified as agencies of the United States, for example, U. S. Department of the Treasury rather than Department of the Treasury, to avoid confusion with State agencies with similar names.
- 10-13 Contact Name, Telephone No., Internet e-mail address, and Fax No. Insert the name, telephone number (with area code), internet e-mail address, and fax number (with area code) of a person within the creditor agency who can respond promptly to questions about the information contained in the AWG order. While an individual's name is preferable, if necessary, the contact name may be a department, for example, Debt Collection Operations Division.
- 14-15 Amount Due and As of (Month/Day/Year). Insert the total amount due and the date this amount was calculated. Agencies should ensure that the amount due includes all interest, penalties, and other costs as of the date listed in the As of box.

Box

Section 1. Order

- 16-20 ABA Routing No., Account No., Agency Location Code (ALC) No., Account Title, and Other information required (i.e., tracking no., debtor name, etc.). Insert information required for an employer to transmit electronically amounts withheld under the AWG order to the agency. Agencies should encourage employers to pay amounts withheld under AWG orders electronically and should explore options to make cost-effective electronic payment mechanisms available to employers. For additional information regarding electronic payment mechanisms and procedures in the Federal Government, agencies should contact FMS' Financial Services Division at (202) 874-6580.
- 21 Mailing address for check payments. Insert the address to which the employer may mail amounts withheld under the AWG order in the form of a check. The mailing address for check payments should be included even if electronic payment information is provided in boxes #16-20.

Section 2. Wage Garnishment Amount.

- (a) If the agency has agreed with the debtor to an exact dollar amount to be deducted from the debtor's wages, insert the dollar amount in Section 2(a). For example, if the agency and the debtor agree that $100 per pay period may be deducted from the debtor's wages, insert 100 after the "$" in Section 2(a). If Section 2(a) is completed, the agency should skip Section 2(b) and proceed to Creditor Agency Certification.
- (b) If Section 2(a) is not completed (because the agency and debtor have not agreed to an exact dollar amount to be deducted from the debtor's wages), the agency must complete Section 2(b)(1). Insert the percentage of the debtor's disposable pay that the employer is ordered to deduct. The percentage will be 15% unless the agency either agrees to a different percentage, or is ordered by a hearing official to accept a different percentage, e.g., 10%.

Creditor Agency Certification. The head of the agency, or his or her delegatee, must sign the Wage Garnishment Order. The delegatee must be an official or employee of the agency. In addition, the signatory's printed name and title should be printed or typed where indicated.

Wage Garnishment Worksheet (SF-329C)

The agency is not required to insert any information on the Wage Garnishment Worksheet. The Worksheet may be used by the employer to calculate the Wage Garnishment Amount to be deducted from a debtor's disposable pay under the AWG order. At the agency's option, the agency may insert the debtor name and social security number as a convenience to the employer. The agency must include the Worksheet as part of the AWG order form even if the Wage Garnishment Order specifies a dollar amount to be withheld because the employer may wish to attach the Worksheet to the Employer Certification. See paragraph #3 of the Employer Certification.

Instructions to Federal Agencies Preparing Administrative Wage Garnishment Forms

Employer Certification (SF-329D)

The information on the Employer Certification to be completed by the agency issuing the AWG order duplicates some of the information required to be provided by the agency on the Wage Garnishment Order (SF-329B) as instructed above. The agency issuing the AWG order must complete the following:

Date of this Order. Insert the date the agency issued the order from box #1 of the Wage Garnishment Order.

Date mailed to Employer. Insert the date the agency mailed the order from box #2 of the Wage Garnishment Order.

Creditor Agency Tracking No. Insert the number used by the agency to identify the AWG order from box #3 of the Wage Garnishment Order.

Creditor Agency and Creditor Agency Mailing Address. Insert the complete name and mailing address of the agency issuing the AWG order from boxes #8-9 of the Wage Garnishment Order.

Employee Name. Insert the full name of the debtor and any alias names by which the debtor may be known from box #4 of the Wage Garnishment Order.

Employee Social Security No. Insert the debtor's social security number from box #5 of the Wage Garnishment Order.

The employer is required to complete the rest of the Employer Certification and to return the completed Employer Certification to the agency issuing the AWG order. An authorized representative of the employer is required to sign and date the Employer Certification at the bottom of page 2 of the Employer Certification.

LETTER TO EMPLOYER & IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

Dear Employer,

One of your employees has been identified as owing a delinquent nontax debt to the United States. The Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 (DCIA) permits Federal agencies to garnish the pay of individuals who owe such debt without first obtaining a court order. Enclosed is a Wage Garnishment Order directing you to withhold a portion of the employee's pay each pay period and to forward those amounts to us. We have previously notified the employee that this action was going to take place and have provided the employee with the opportunity to dispute the debt.

As both a businessperson and a taxpayer you can understand and appreciate the importance of ensuring that duly owed debts do not go unpaid. Your cooperation in complying with the enclosed Wage Garnishment Order will assist in our efforts to collect the billions of dollars in delinquent nontax debt owed to the United States. A Wage Garnishment Worksheet is enclosed to assist you in determining the proper amount to withhold.

Please read the enclosed documents carefully. They contain important information concerning your responsibilities to comply with this Order. If you have any questions, please call the contact name listed on the Order.

Thank you for your cooperation.

See reverse for Important Notice to Employer.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

FEDERAL LAW (31 U.S.C. § 3720D, 31 C.F.R. § 285.11) PROVIDES:

1. Federal law supersedes State law. Federal law applies to wage garnishment pursuant to the Wage Garnishment Order notwithstanding State law.
2. Disposable pay. For purposes of the Wage Garnishment Order, "disposable pay" means the employee's compensation (including, but not limited to, salary, overtime, bonuses, commissions, sick leave and vacation pay) from an employer after the deduction of health insurance premiums and any amounts required by law to be withheld. Proper deductions include Federal, State, and local taxes, State unemployment and disability taxes, social security taxes, and involuntary pension contributions, but do not include voluntary pension or retirement plan contributions, union dues, or amounts withheld pursuant to a court order, and the like. A Wage Garnishment Worksheet is included with the Wage Garnishment Order to assist the employer in calculating disposable pay and the wage garnishment amount.
3. Multiple Withholding Orders. If in addition to the Wage Garnishment Order you, as employer, are served with other withholding orders pertaining to the same employee, then you may withhold sufficient amounts to satisfy the multiple withholding orders simultaneously, up to the maximum amount of 25%. The Wage Garnishment Order should be paid before garnishment or withholding orders that you receive after you receive this one, EXCEPT that family support orders always should be paid first. Upon termination of the family support or prior withholding order(s), the amount withheld for the Wage Garnishment Order shall be increased to the amount stated in Section 2 of the Wage Garnishment Order.
4. Pay cycles. An employer is not required to vary its normal pay and disbursement cycles to comply with the Wage Garnishment Order.
5. Failure to comply. AN EMPLOYER WHO FAILS TO COMPLY WITH THE WAGE GARNISHMENT ORDER SHALL BE LIABLE FOR ANY AMOUNTS THAT THE EMPLOYER FAILS TO WITHHOLD UNDER THE WAGE GARNISHMENT ORDER, PLUS ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS INCURRED BY THE CREDITOR AGENCY TO ENFORCE THE WAGE GARNISHMENT ORDER. IN ADDITION, THE EMPLOYER WHO FAILS TO COMPLY WITH THE WAGE GARNISHMENT ORDER MAY BE LIABLE FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES AS DETERMINED BY A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION.
6. No retaliation. AN INDIVIDUAL MAY SUE ANY EMPLOYER WHO DISCHARGES FROM EMPLOYMENT, REFUSES TO EMPLOY, OR TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST AN INDIVIDUAL SUBJECT TO A WAGE GARNISHMENT ORDER BY REASON OF THE FACT THAT THE INDIVIDUAL'S WAGES HAVE BEEN SUBJECT TO GARNISHMENT UNDER 31 U.S.C. § 3720D. A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION SHALL AWARD ATTORNEY'S FEES TO A PREVAILING EMPLOYEE, AND, IN ITS DISCRETION, MAY ORDER REINSTATEMENT OF THE INDIVIDUAL, AWARD PUNITIVE DAMAGES AND BACK PAY TO THE EMPLOYEE, OR ORDER SUCH OTHER REMEDY AS MAY BE REASONABLY NECESSARY.
